

PLEASE HELP ME BE A YOUTUBER!

I keep trying but I'm very very bad at it

My dad is a pilot and if I wear my high school band uniform and use a fake mustache I won at Chuck E Cheese when I was 4 I can fly to any city I want because they think I'm him so I wanted to start a travel vlog but it's very tough to do because you have to remember so many different things like editing and holding your camera steady and keeping it all in portrait or landscape without switching back and forth even if you find it tough to keep the 2 separate.

Anyway if you know how to do this sort of travel vlog thing please help I have a trip coming up to Greece and I want to make sure that people will watch my video and be nice because the last vid I did got 2 views and 4 angry comments like I didn't even know that was possible folks got so mad about it they left multiple comments each like the most dedicated haters they didn't even wanna edit 6 more insults in there they just posted again like "remember me I'm back to dunk on you again sucker 1 was not enough"!!

Anyway my flight is in 7 days and if someone doesn't tell me how to make a better video it's gonna be so bad it'll be like the Ring because someone's gonna pick up the phone and say "7 days" and while the threat of supernatural doom might be a good way to get viewers I'm pretty sure I'd get a TOS violation for it.

So please tell me how to do it good please I'll give you a high 5 and list you in the credits as thanks so thank you!!!

THANK YOU IN ADVANCE YOU'RE A REAL PAL
